

Do not support the Bank Petition that would override Indiana's Do Not Call Law. There are other state laws that are stronger than Federal laws and they are allowed to stand.

Indiana people support the Indiana law. It has been working. That is why banks are trying an end run. They have adequate ways to contact their customers now!